Health Savings Account Basics

The Health Savings Account (HSA) consists of two parts:

1

High Deductible
Health Plan (HDHP)

2

The Health Savings Account

HSAs must be used in combination with a qualified High Deductible Health Plan (HDHP). With HDHPs:

- A higher annual deductible applies
- Out-of-pocket maximums apply only to covered benefits
- Preventive care benefits may be provided without a deductible

HSA Eligibility

To be an eligible individual and qualify for an HSA you:

Must be enrolled in an HSA-compatible High Deductible Health Plan (HDHP)

May not have other types of insurance with first-dollar medical coverage

May not be claimed as a dependent on another person's tax return

May not be enrolled in Medicare

An individual can be Medicare-eligible and have an HSA. However, once enrolled in Medicare, contributions to the HSA account must stop. The individual can keep any funds in the account prior to enrolling in Medicare and use those funds to pay for qualified medical expenses tax-free.

HSA Contributions

- The IRS determines the minimum/maximum amounts. The amounts are adjusted annually for inflation.
- Employee, employer or any other person may make contributions on behalf of an eligible individual.
- Your employer will make a one-time seed money deposit to the employee's HSA account in early January.

U.S. Treasury Guidelines	2024 Maximum HSA Contribution	2025 Maximum HSA Contribution
Single Coverage	$4,150	$4,300
Family Coverage	$8,300	$8,550
Individuals age 55 and older can make catch-up contributions: $1,000

View HSA Account Information Online

- With HealthEquity HSA, you can view your HSA account information online
- Check HSA account status
- View or print detailed history of HSA account transactions and balances
- Link to FAQs and more information about HSAs

When this maximum has been reached, the balance is eligible under your major medical benefits, subject to a yearly deductible and a coinsurance share.
